In re:
ACACIA MEDIA TECHNOLOGIES
CORPORATION

Case No. 05-cv-01114 (JW)

MDL No. 1665

ROUND 3 DEFENDANTS' RESPONSE TO ACACIA'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY
JUDGMENT OF INVALIDITY

1 Round 3 Defendants¹ submit this memorandum in response to Plaintiff Acacia Media
2 Technologies Corporation's ("Acacia's") motion for summary judgment of invalidity under 35 U.S.C.
3 § 112 against itself.² (D.I. 287). In short, we agree that all of the asserted claims of the patents-in-
4 suit are invalid for at least the reasons described in Acacia's motion. However, we respectfully
5 request that the Court delay issuing an order granting Acacia's motion until such time that it issues an
6 order on Defendants' pending motions for summary judgment of invalidity under 35 U.S.C. § 112.
7 (See, e.g., D.I. 292, 296, 297).

9 As detailed in Defendants' pending motions, all of the asserted claims of the patents-in-suit
10 are invalid under 35 U.S.C. § 112 on numerous grounds, including, but not limited, to those set forth
11 in Acacia's motion for summary judgment. (D.I. 287). As the Defendants' explained the last time
12 Acacia sought an immediate appeal on the narrowly-tailored invalidity grounds it stipulated to, the 13 interest of judicial economy would best be served by the Court's consideration of and ruling on 14 Defendants' pending motions before any appeal could be taken, notwithstanding Acacia's stipulation.
15 The Court agreed with Defendants and denied Acacia the relief it sought. That is why the Court

22 ¹ Round 3 Defendants are Time Warner Cable Inc. and CSC Holdings, Inc.

23 ² The following additional parties join in this response: DirecTV Group, Inc.; EchoStar Satellite
24 LLC; EchoStar Technologies Corp.; Charter Communications, Inc.; Wide Open West Ohio LLC;
25 Armstrong Group; Massillon Cable TV, Inc.; East Cleveland Cable TV and Communications
26 LLC; Mid-Continent Media, Inc.; Cannon Valley Communications, Inc.; US Cable Holdings, LP;
27 Arvig Communications Systems; Sjoberg's Cablevision, Inc.; Loretel Cablevision, Inc.; NPG
28 Cable, Inc.; Block Communications, Inc.; Savage Communications, Inc.; Cable One, Inc.;
Mediacom Communications Corporation; Bresnan Communications; Cequel III Communications
I, LLC (dba Cebridge Connections); Comcast Cable Communications, LLC; Insight
Communications, Inc.; Coxcom, Inc.; Hospitality Network, Inc.; and CableAmerica Corp.

1 ordered the parties to agree on, and why the Court subsequently adopted, a schedule for briefing the
2 Defendants' summary judgment motions. (D.I. 274; see D.I. 277, 280, 282).³

3 As described in Defendants' motion for a continuance (D.I. 304), once Acacia saw the list of
4 Defendants' motions and came to appreciate the magnitude of the § 112 infirmities of the patents-in-
5 suit, Acacia began desperately trying to avoid the Court's consideration of, and ruling on, those
6 motions. Acacia filed a summary judgment motion against itself on the same limited grounds it
7 previously agreed to stipulate to, and further insisted that the Court rule on its summary judgment
8 motion before the Court considers Defendants' motions (and therefore refused to stipulate to a 9 continuance) so that it can again argue that the Court lacks jurisdiction to consider Defendants'
10 motions. (D.I. 307). This is the same position Acacia took in the Joint Stipulation and Case
11 Management Statement filed on April 18, 2008 (D.I. 274), which as noted above, the Court rejected
12 at a conference on May 9, 2008.

15 While, in fact, an early ruling on Acacia's motion would not deprive the Court of jurisdiction
16 to decide Defendants' motions, Defendants do not want resolution of their motions delayed while the 17 Court resolves Acacia's inevitable jurisdictional motion. Therefore, even though the Round 3
18 Defendants agree that the patents-in-suit are invalid for the reasons described in Acacia's motion, our
19 request that the Court postpone issuance of an order on Acacia's motion until such time as this Court
20 issues an order on Defendants' pending § 112 motions should be granted.
21
23
24

26
27 ³ Indeed as reflected in the Joint Case Management Statement filed on February 29, 2008, Acacia
28 itself initially agreed that the Court should decide all of the § 112 motions raised on summary judgment. (D.I. 267).

1 Dated: September 29, 2008

Respectfully Submitted,
